

Diversified Revenues Power Hoboken's eMazzanti Technologies to 9th Appearance on Inc. 5000 List

NYC area IT consultant attributes 2020 Inc. 5000 recognition to expanding cloud, retail and legal IT, digital marketing, and information governance services

Hoboken, New Jersey -- (Cision) August 12, 2020 – For the ninth time, including 8 consecutive years, Inc. magazine has ranked eMazzanti Technologies among the top fastest growing private companies in America in its annual Inc. 5000 list.

President and Co-founder, Carl Mazzanti attributes the achievement to continued growth in cloud services, digital marketing and the retail and legal technology segments. The launch of information governance and email consulting firm, Messaging Architects, also contributed to revenue growth.

"Companies vote with their hard-earned dollars," stated Mazzanti. "For nineteen years running, our customers have chosen eMazzanti's outstanding services and support. Making the Inc. 5000 list for the ninth time reflects their trust and our mutual success."

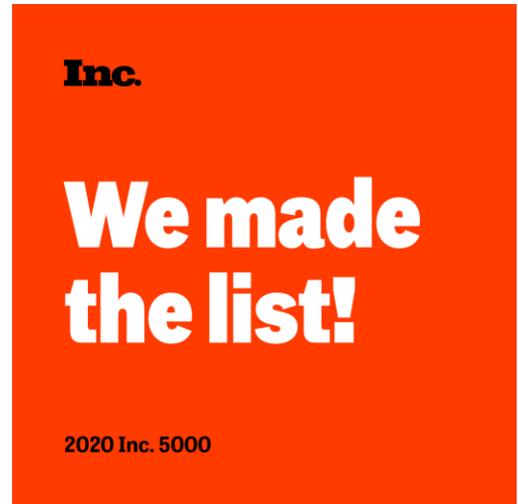

"Your repeat Inc. 5000 honors truly put you in rarefied company," writes Scott Omelianuk, Editor-in-Chief, Inc. Media, in a letter to eMazzanti Technologies. "The elite group you've now joined has, over the years, included organizations such as Microsoft, Timberland, Vizio, Intuit, Chobani, Oracle, and Zappos.com."

The 2020 Inc. 5000 achieved an incredible three-year average growth of over 500 percent, and a median rate of 165 percent. The Inc. 5000's aggregate revenue was $209 billion in 2019, accounting for over 1 million jobs over the past three years. eMazzanti Technologies ranks number 4,808 on the 2020 list with an impressive three-year growth rate of 60.84%.

Broad Revenue Growth

Addressing the cloud computing needs of geographically disbursed customers, eMazzanti's broad cloud services offerings continue to attract market attention. The offerings include Azure-based infrastructure as a service (IaaS), disaster recovery as a service (DRaaS) and support for SMB and enterprise customers through a cloud MSP business model.

The addition of industry-specific technology offerings in recent years has also strengthened eMazzanti's presence in the retailer and legal technology market segments. Furthermore, the launch in 2019 of Messaging Architects, an eMazzanti Technologies company, adds enterprise-grade information governance, email migration, eDiscovery and compliance solutions and support to its full slate of managed IT and security, cloud and digital marketing services.

“The success of our cloud, retail and legal technology offerings and information governance expertise reflect our customers’ shift to cloud computing and their need for data governance and compliance solutions,” said Ervis Zeqo, Business Development Manager, eMazzanti Technologies, “Now with an increased emphasis on remote worker technology, we have the right IT services at the right time.”

eMazzanti’s cloud services provide remote worker capabilities, agility and increased efficiency to its customers. Industry-focused solutions such as POS systems and infrastructure, PCI compliance and retail payment technologies have transformed eMazzanti into a one-stop technology shop for retailers.

Global MSP Recognition

In addition to making the Inc. 5000 list for the ninth time, eMazzanti was recently named one of the world’s best SMB Managed Service Providers by Channel Futures. The firm also ranked highly in Channel Futures’ global ranking of all managed services providers (MSPs). In addition, CRN named eMazzanti Technologies to its 2020 Managed Service Provider (MSP) 500 list.

How to Make the Inc. 5000 List

Companies making the list are ranked according to the percentage growth of their annual revenue over a three-year period using 2016 as a base year. To qualify, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by March 31, 2016.

Only U.S.-based, for profit, privately held independent companies, as of December 31, 2019, were eligible for consideration. Firms must also show 2016 revenues of at least $100,000 and 2019 revenues of $2 million or more.
