

2022 NJBIZ Cybersecurity Panel to Feature Tech Entrepreneur Carl Mazzanti

The evolving role of government in combating cyber threats, using artificial intelligence to prevent attacks, and supply chain vulnerabilities topics to be explored by NJBIZ panel eMazzanti Technologies President and Co-founder, Carl Mazzanti, will be a featured cybersecurity industry expert on a Cybersecurity Panel Discussion presented by NJBIZ, Tuesday, February 22, 2022. Mazzanti was also featured at the 2019 and 2020 NJBIZ cybersecurity events.

The NJBIZ cybersecurity educational virtual event is scheduled to run from 1:00 to 2:30 pm online. Interested parties may register and submit questions for the panelists at NJBIZ.com.

The panel of industry experts will explore topics such as the evolving role of government in combating cyber threats, how artificial intelligence can assist in guarding against attacks, and eliminating vulnerabilities throughout the supply chain. The panel will also address countering emerging threats, such as ransomware-as-a-service, and why small and mid-size businesses are increasingly at risk.

"Businesses of all sizes that use cloud and mobile technologies to work remotely and improve their connectivity present a larger attack surface for cyber-criminals to penetrate," stated Mazzanti. "Protective measures must keep pace."
